Student support activities @Imperial

- Imperial students attended a series of development seminars as per student development plan 2016

Students attended development seminars on “Writing business email and social media etiquettes”; “Employment Rights”; “Employment opportunities with Kiwiown” and “Business presentation skills” for the period May to August 2016

- Students were provided opportunity to attend “Question and Answer” session with the Immigration Law Specialist to clarify their questions related to the Immigration
- Students visited Tip Top Factory to have New Zealand industry exposure
- Monthly student meetings are conducted by the College Principal. ‘Support and Guidance’ meetings are conducted with students at low attendance. Students are positive about regular meetings with Principal.
